

GOVERNOR VARDAMAN'S NEW PAPER

"THE ISSUE"

is now out and is a masterpiece in every particular.

Subscribe now and get the first copy.

It is a 24 page weekly for $1.50 per year.

Send Subscriptions to
R. W. MAXEY, Special Agent.
JACKSON, MISS.

"MR. FARMER"

The cotton crop depends upon the number of pounds of our fertilizers.

NONE BETTER.

Made By
TENNESSEE VALLEY FERTILIZER COMPANY
Florence, Ala.
Fertilizers.

LUMBER Of All Kinds

Are you going to build?
Are you going to repair?
Then let me give you an estimate.
It costs you nothing to get my prices and you will Save Money.
Lumber of all kinds for all purposes.

Write or Phone 285 4 Rings

Neal Lawrence

R. F. D. No. 2

Columbus, Miss.

CALEDONIA DEPARTMENT.

Little three-year-old Adlene Odom, whom we mentioned as being burned last week, died February 4 as a result of her burns. It seems that she and another child only five years old, were playing in the room and that they had bolted the door on the inside. The little one's clothing caught fire at the fireplace and her mother had to go through a window in order to get into the room where the children were. Rev. W. C. Galceran conducted the funeral on the afternoon of the same day. The burial was at Egger Cemetery. We feel for the sorrowing family in this sad bereavement.

"Ere sin could blight or sorrow fade, Death came with friendly care; The opening bud to Heaven conveyed, And bade it blossom there."

Married at the home of the bride's parents on Wednesday, February 5, Miss Lutie May Smith to Mr. Ernest W. Vaughn, Rev. W. C. Galceran officiating. The bride is the beautiful and accomplished daughter of Mr. R. W. Smith, who lives on the Military Road; the groom is a son of Mr. H. B. Vaughn and is a worthy young man. This was one of the prettiest home marriages we have had for many a day. The room was beautifully decorated and was lighted artificially. The attendants were: Misses Annie Lance and Hattie Vaughn, bridesmaids; and Messrs. Floyd Loftis and Leonard Vaughn, groomsmen.

"Happy they, the happiest of their kind! Whom gentler stars unite, and in one fate Their hearts, their fortunes and their beings blend."

We understand that the Christian church at this place has raised about $300 on the fund for a new building. Dr. N. B. Wood was confined to his room several days last week, but we are glad to say that he is now able to be up again.

Messrs. Charlie Egger and Guy Jamieson made a trip to Aberdeen Friday.

Messrs. J. L. Williams and W. C. Galceran left Monday for Hattiesburg to attend the Masonic Grand Lodge which convenes in that city on 11th inst.

Miss Kittie Crow, teacher at Lone Oak, has been sick and the school has been suspended for a week. Stanley school, in charge of Miss Beulah Smith, is temporarily suspended in fear of an epidemic of measles in that neighborhood.

Mr. Sam Myers was in Columbus on business last Saturday.

Delegates from the various Farmers' unions of Lowndes county met here on February 8. This is the first county meeting Caledonia has had. It seemed to be well attended. We understand that the committee on the location of a cotton warehouse was continued and that the union has not yet determined whether its warehouse shall be located at Steens or at Columbus. The next meeting is to be held at Dowdle schoolhouse.

Mr. Lamar Rutherford of West Point was in the Flint Hill neighborhood lately on business. Mr. Rutherford buys livestock.

Sunday was a bleak day with a heavy downpour of rain; but Bro. Ellis filled appointment here, and Bro. Galceran filled his at New Hope.

Mr. R. E. Grisham of West Point visited his father-in-law, Mr. W. J. Stanley, last Friday.

Mrs. W. H. Gaston has been with her son, Roy, in Columbus. Like almost everyone else, Roy has been sick.

Mr. Burnie Rye, who rides to school from Monroe Co., on the other side of the river, had the misfortune to lose his horse last week.

Mr. A. J. Fuqua of Columbus was here on business for a day or two last week.

Our High School received a pleasant visit last week from Miss Clemmie Loftis, principal of New Salem school, Misses Bessie Dowdle, Cora Smith, Lola Egger and Jessie Caldwell.

Mrs. Augusta Harris is visiting her daughter, Mrs. N. B. Wood.

The United States Department of Agriculture has located at Columbus a branch, in charge of Mr. H. E. Savely, to do Farmer's Co-operative Cotton Demonstration work. This is your chance, friend farmer, to have the department at work on your own farm, at no cost to you, demonstrating the most approved method of cotton raising from the preparation of the seed bed to the picking. As this is pre-eminently an agricultural community, and the garden spot of the South, we hope to see our wide-awake farmers take advantage of this splendid opportunity. We note with pleasure that Mr. T. J. Mason offers land on the old Minter homestead for demonstration work. Watch it.

Miss Clemmie Loftis visited Miss Annie Egger last Saturday and Sunday.

We had an excellent game of ball last Friday afternoon on the High school diamond. New Salem crossed bats with the H. S. boys, but Salem had more girls in her crowd than boys. Score 9 to 15 in favor of Caledonia. It was a very pleasant game and we hope the visitors will come again.

Last Friday night the young people enjoyed themselves at the home of our neighbor, Mr. H. A. Greer. They had a fruit supper and a general good time, and they pronounce this the most enjoyable social of the season.

Capt. J. L. Egger departed on Monday for Hattiesburg, where he goes to attend the annual meeting of the

ALL HONOR TO THEM!

Gen. Walker Coming in Aid of the Great Work.

The great movement to honor, in everlasting form, the glorious women of the Confederacy, is rapidly sweeping through the South. It has been too long delayed and we must pay these tributes to these women, who during the trying days of that terrible contest were "an inspiration to the brave, a spur to the lagard and a whip of scorn to the unfaithful."

Having a definite and most worthy object in view in aid of this magnificent cause there have been published to various leading papers of the South, the papers for each State containing original personal historic incidents of devotion and patriotism of the women of that State. But as the plan developed, the further great benefit was obtained by collection of a splendid mass of such valuable history.

These supplements have been issued in Virginia, North Carolina, Georgia, Florida, Alabama, Tennessee and Arkansas. This grand picture of Southern women's heroism can not be complete without a recital of the splendid heroism of Mississippi's Daughters.

So Gen. C. Irvine Walker, of Charleston, S. C., chairman Veterans Committee and special representatives of the Sons, has undertaken the work in this State and will see that our Mississippi women have their full share of honor and credit. He will be in our city this week preparing for the supplement to The Dispatch and other papers of our State.

Gen. Walker has the distinguished honor bestowed upon him by the great federation of Confederate veterans of being commander of the Army of Northern Virginia, U. C. V. This entire organization is divided into three departments and Gen. Walker is at the head of one of these and our beloved Gen. Stephen D. Lee, as commander-in-chief, presides over all.

Gen. Walker comes to us well known of the Veterans and their Sons and their Daughters and has the highest recommendations from the head of each of these bodies in Mississippi. He is worthy of all confidence and The Dispatch is assured of the hearty support to be given by the good people of Columbus.

Fine Lodge at Steens.

The New Hope lodge of Odd Fellows formally transferred the place of its domicile from New Hope in the eastern section of the county, to Steens, on the line of the Southern Railway last week, the transfer being attended by circumstances of such an encouraging nature as to warrant for all time to come the future of the Steens lodge. This little city is thriving and prospering and it has a better prospect now than it has had for many years, the promised development of the timber of that section acting as an impetus to the upward tendency in all things. For this reason and for the further reason that the members of the New Hope lodge were widely scattered it was decided to transfer the lodge to the new site.

A large delegation of Odd Fellows from this city went to Steens for that purpose last week and the transfer was made, new officers were elected and installed and the membership of New Hope lodge was added to largely by card and by initiation. The following were the officers elected to serve the ensuing term: J. O. Green, Noble Grand; Thos. W. Townsend, Vice Grand; R. T. Green, Secretary, and A. J. Saunders, Treasurer. The appointive officers will be filled at a special meeting to be held on next Friday afternoon when a delegation from Union Lodge in this city will assist the members of New Hope lodge in putting through a large class.

At the meeting of the lodge which was held last week the following were added new members: By card, L. C. Smith, W. B. Thomas, A. J. Saunders, J. O. Green, C. B. Allen, G. B. Allen, R. T. Green; by initiation, C. A. Loftis, J. T. Green, J. R. Harris, J. G. Wood, J. T. Loftis, L. S. Pennington and D. R. Rector. These candidates will be carried through all of the degrees at the meeting next Friday and a large crowd is expected.

The members of the lodge expect to get them a fine hall and will enter actively at work for this end. It promises to be one of the best lodges of the county as it has a good membership and excellent officers.

Subscribe for The Dispatch.

Where the Money Goes.

The following is a summary of the fortunes which American girls have handed over to titled foreigners during the past twenty-five years:

Duchess of Manchester (Consuelo Vanderbilt)	$ 1,000,000
Princess Poniatowski (Elizabeth Sperry)	1,000,000
Duchess of Marlborough (Consuelo Vanderbilt)	10,000,000
Lady Curzon (Mary Leiter)	5,000,000
Lady Lister-Kaye (Nathia Yznaga)	1,000,000
Countess von Pappenheim (Miss Wheeler)	1,000,000
Princess Colonna (Eva Julia Mackay Bryant)	7,500,000
Countess Castellane (Anna Gould)	17,000,000
Mrs. George Cornwallis West (Lady Randolph Churchill, nee Jerome)	100,000
Lady William Somerset (Mrs. L. Hammisley)	1,000,000
Duchess of Manchester (Helena Zimmerman)	2,000,000
Duchess of Roxburgh (May Goebl)	23,000,000
Countess of Stafford (Mrs. Colclough)	1,000,000
Princess Anrep (Florence Harriett)	1,000,000
Lady Thomas Hudson (Florence Sherman)	1,000,000
Mrs. Arthur Dugan (Minnie Stevens)	2,000,000
Mrs. Vivian (Mrs. Marshall O. Roberts)	12,000,000
Countess of Craven (Constance Martin)	1,000,000
Countess of Denbigh (Ellen Grace)	100,000
Baroness de Vintze (Anne Cutting)	100,000
Mrs. Douglas Campbell (Miss Lawrence)	100,000
Marchioness de Brevall (Lita Garner)	2,000,000
Princess Viceroy (Eleanore Spencer)	1,000,000
Marchioness de San Marzano (Miss Gilander)	1,000,000
Countess de Rohan-Chabot (Mrs. H. Galbraith)	1,000,000
Princess Scy-Montheville (Miss Singer)	1,000,000
Princess Hatzfeld (Clara Huntington)	2,000,000
Baroness Buchillon (Miss Beecham)	1,000,000
Marquise de Chastene (Miss Condit)	100,000
Princess Knalichoff (Emily Partridge)	2,000,000
Duchess de Dine (Adeline Sampson)	2,000,000
Countess Foville (Eda Haggin)	2,000,000
Baroness de Zedlitz (Miss Rivers)	100,000
Lady Gilbert Thomas (Fanny Miss Farnham)	1,000,000
Countess von Gutsch (Marie Schott-Schumacher)	1,000,000
Mrs. Michael Henry Russell (Della Wilson)	1,000,000
Baroness Hathorn (Elizabeth Stoddard)	12,000,000
Mrs. Burke Roche (Florence Wick)	1,000,000
Duchess de Valeray (Miss Murray)	1,000,000
Lady Gordon-Canning (Florence Gardner)	2,000,000
Countess Mettler-Hugobolt (Louise Bonaparte)	1,000,000
Countess Yarnsworth (Miss Thaw)	1,000,000
One hundred lesser American heiresses	$4,000,000
Mrs. Collin Campbell (Daisy Lister)	2,000,000
Countess of Suffolk (Nannie Leiter)	2,000,000
Total	$294,000,000

Eric Gambrell Snickers.
Eric C. Gambrell, some years ago a prominent Memphis newspaper man, killed himself at Fort Worth, Texas, last Sunday night after discussing with a friend the suicide earlier in the day in that city of Banker Hutchins.

Eric Gambrell was for many years prominent in Mississippi journalism and was the editor of the old Memphis Ledger in its last days.

Mr. Gambrell left his home in Oklahoma, where he was practicing law, went to Fort Worth and called on his friend, Hunt McCallish. He discussed with McCallish the reason that impelled Hutchins to kill himself. He expressed to McCallish the opinion that when the burdens of life become too heavy a man is justified in laying them down. He said if the state had the right to take a man's life a man had the right to take his own life. McCallish scorned the idea and invited Gambrell to dinner. Gambrell refused the invitation and retired to his hotel.

He wrote a note and asked that McCallish be notified of what he was going to do, and what he wanted McCallish to do when his body was found. At 8 o'clock that night Gambrell placed a pistol against his breast and fired a bullet through his own heart. Attracted by the noise of the pistol, several people ran into the room and found the young man dead.

Eric Gambrell was the son of the Rev. Dr. J. B. Gambrell, a noted

Baptist divine, who was famous throughout Mississippi and Georgia as a preacher. His brother, Frederick D. Gambrell, was killed by Col. James Hamilton at Jackson, Miss. Frederick Gambrell was editor of the "Sword and Shield," a prohibition paper. Eric Gambrell was associated with him. Frederick Gambrell bitterly attacked Col. James Hamilton, and the attacks were continued until he was shot to death.

Eric Gambrell went to Memphis after studying law and made many friends while here. He left this city about 1886 and went to Dallas, where he practiced law. A few months ago he left Dallas and went to Ardmore, Okla., where he opened a law office. He leaves a widow and a six-year-old son in Dallas.

It is believed that while brooding over the death of Hutchins, a man whom he did not know, Gambrell yielded to a suggestion to take his own life.

Dowdle Local No. 1435, F. E. and C. U.

Most regular meeting Friday, Feb. 10, with President Morgan H. Van Diver in his place, and J. W. Hubbs, secretary-treasurer, present. This was one of the best meetings ever held by Dowdle local, which is the leader local with 46 members and several applications on hand.

Mr. L. A. Shanks, Vice J. Dowdle, J. A. Gilling and L. C. West were initiated into the system of the order and degree. Officers will follow.

Dowdle Local has offered a prize of $10 for the best poem of each nature by any member and several of her progressive members are already claiming the prize. On 27, here, if you all don't get the prize, you will have the corn.

Cut out all corn and take care and cut and then plant cotton in the cre of Dowdle Local. Read good papers, improve your homes and get some pleasure in the life and ambition of the union men of this country. Join the union and keep in the fight and then you will appreciate the victory more.

The Charter of Incorporation of Columbus Flaming Mill Co.
FIRST—The corporate title of said company shall be the Columbus Flaming Mill Company.

SECOND—The names of the incorporators are D. K. Jeffries, of Chicago, Illinois, Andrew Thompson, of Columbus, Mississippi, and D. A. Alexander, of Columbus, Mississippi.

THIRD—The domicile of said corporation shall be at Columbus, Lowndes County, Mississippi.

FOURTH—The amount of the capital stock of said corporation is TEN THOUSAND DOLLARS.

FIFTH—The par value of said shares of stock is one dollar.

SIXTH—The names of the officers shall be one—Board of Directors, consisting of—

SEVENTH—The names of the officers shall be—

EIGHTH—The names of the officers shall be—

NINTH—The said corporation may begin business when so much as Five Thousand Dollars shall have been paid in.

D. K. Jeffries,
Andrew Thompson,
D. A. Alexander.

This January 22, A. D. 1908.

I have examined this charter of incorporation, and am of the opinion that it with the Constitution and Laws of the United States.

Attorney General.

STATE OF ILLINOIS, COUNTY OF COOK.

PERSONALLY APPEARED BEFORE ME, the undersigned authority in and for said County and State, D. K. Jeffries, who acknowledged to me that he signed and executed the foregoing application for a charter of incorporation, as one of the incorporators of the Columbus Flaming Mill Company.

GIVEN UNDER MY HAND AND SEAL OF OFFICE this, the 25th day of January, 1908. F. A. Elliott, Notary Public of Cook County, Illinois.

(My Commission expires Dec. 12, 1910.)

STATE OF MISSISSIPPI, LOWNDOS COUNTY.

PERSONALLY APPEARED BEFORE ME, the undersigned authority in and for said County and State, Andrew Thompson and D. A. Alexander, who each acknowledged before me that they signed and executed the foregoing application for a charter of incorporation, as one of the incorporators of the Columbus Flaming Mill Company.

GIVEN UNDER MY HAND AND SEAL OF OFFICE this, the 25th day of January, 1908. R. J. Gentry, Clerk of Circuit Court.

2-2 Low-25

Resolution Notice.
The co-partnership heretofore existing under the firm name of Vaughn, Harris & Co., has this day been dissolved by mutual consent. Mr. H. B. Vaughn and Mr. Joe McCallish retiring and Mr. R. G. Harris continuing the business and assuming all the liabilities and assets of the firm.

H. B. Vaughn,
R. G. Harris,
Joe McCallish.

2-2-200

Subscribe for The Dispatch.

Chancery Notice.

THE STATE OF MISSISSIPPI,

Lowndes County,

To Rosa Jortner, (nee Geigen), postoffice, Deblca, Galicia, (Galizien,) Austria; Breindel Schminding (nee Simche), postoffice, Krakau, Galicia, (Galizien,) Austria; Neche Greshler, (nee Simche), postoffice, Krakau, Galicia, (Galizien,) Austria; Bernard Simche, Tarnow, Galicia, (Galizien,) Austria; and to the unknown heirs of August Geigen, Deceased:

You are commanded to appear before the Chancery Court of the County of Lowndes in said State, on the First Monday of April, A. D. 1908, to show cause, if any you can, why the final account of Joseph Herz, administrator of the estate of August Geigen, deceased, should not be allowed.

This 7th day of February, A. D. 1908.

(Seal) D. D. Richards, Clerk.

Subscribe for The Dispatch.

Dr. R. S. Curry

SPECIALIST

Practice Limited to Eye, Ear
Nose and Throat

OFFICE IN

BANK BUILDING

Glasses Fitted Correctly

Watched Fifteen Years.

"For fifteen years I have watched the working of Bucklen's Arnica Salve; and it has never failed to cure and sore, boil, ulcer or burn to which it was applied. It has saved us many a doctor bill," says A. F. Hardy, of East Wilton, Maine. 25c at L. E. Mayfield's drug store.